Cabinet says yes to brown bin charges

COUNCILLORS have approved proposals to charge a fee of up to £50 for garden waste collections.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet voted in favour of the yearly subscription fee at a meeting on Tuesday.

Funding cuts mean that in order to continue providing the service for free, St Edmundsbury and Forest Heath councils would have to find an extra £500,000 in funding.

Cllr Peter Stevens, cabinet member responsible for waste management, said: "We feel that although residents have enjoyed the service for free, budget constraints have forced us to make an unpopular decision."

Cllr John Griffiths, who was chairing the meeting, added: "I don't think anyone is suggesting it with any enthusiasm, but it is the way forward."

He added that he was hoping the introduction of the charge would be accompanied by improvements in the garden waste collection system.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Cllr Sarah Mildmay-White said: "Most other people in the country now are paying for their brown bins."

"It's upsetting to see something that has been offered for free now being charged for. St Edmundsbury does give very good value for the council tax, but times have changed."

The funding shortfall arises from changes in the amount Suffolk County Council will pay the district and county councils for each tonne of waste collected.

If the current system continues, the council will make a loss of £25.51 on each tonne of garden waste collected. In order to cover the loss through taxation, the council would have to raise council tax by such a large amount that a referendum would be required to approve the hike.

The change is also being considered in light of national and European changes in attitudes to waste collection, which now focus on reduction and reuse more than recycling. This involves encouraging residents to home compost or take waste to the recycling plant themselves.

Suffolk County Council made a decision in favour of charging for collections in July. If all councils across the county adopt the system, the savings could be £1.4 to £2.4 million.

The proposals will go before St Edmundsbury's full council on September 22.

Pump track is a step closer

THE town council are considering becoming the lease-holders for a proposed BMX pump track on the Clements Estate.

A pump track is a trail of dips and mounds which BMX riders can get around without pedalling by shifting the weight of their body.

The suggested track is part of the "Local Conversations" project that Community Action Suffolk is running in the ward of Haverhill South. In May this year £200,000 funding for the project from the People's Health Trust was announced.

Jon Eaton, community field officer at Community Action Suffolk, gave a presentation about the pump track plans to Haverhill town council's leisure and community committee on Tuesday night.

The pump track, which would be built on a 50m by 30m site adjacent to Greenfields Way leased from St Edmundsbury Borough Council, would be the "legacy" element of the project, which aims to create something lasting in the town.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

The proposal came about after consultation with residents and the People's Forum about what Haverhill South families would like to see built in the area.

Mr Eaton said: "The idea is to engage with the whole community, from primary age people to adult members."

He added: "Overwhelmingly the young people in the ward have said they want something active. We have got the support of Clements Primary School and Castle Manor, the secondary school, would like to produce a website."

Mayor of Haverhill Betty McLatchy said: "I think it's a terrific idea. It's well in demand and a nice healthy project."

Cllr Maureen Byrne said: "What I am so impressed about is that the community decided what they want. They said 'This is what we want.' What I think is different and special is that we have got parents involved."

Mr Eaton asked the town council if they would express an interest in becoming "custodian lessees" on the site. This would mean they managed the 25-year lease on the site where the pump track would be built.

Town clerk Colin Poole explained that the leaseholder must be a legal person - which the town council is - and that it must be a satisfactory choice for St Edmundsbury. As the town council fulfilled both of these criteria, it could become custodian lessee.

Cllr McLatchy said: "The national message is get fit and keep fit, so it's the least we can do."

Community Action Suffolk do not yet have a proposed budget for the project. If planning permission were granted to it, it would then take two years to complete.

Community Action Suffolk are aiming to create a "community chest" to give grants to community groups, and hope to regenerate town play areas.

CELEBRATION

Fireworks to mark Queen's reign

FIREWORKS were set off in Haverhill last night to celebrate Queen Elizabeth II becoming the UK's longest-reigning monarch.

The fireworks were set off at the New Croft football ground as it is one of the highest points in the town. The bar at the sports venue was open for residents who wanted to go along and raise a toast to the Queen.

The firework display, planned by the town clerk and councillors, involved 63 rockets being set off and the number 63 appearing in the sky, to mark the 63 years the Queen has been on the throne.

Elizabeth was crown in 1952, and her reign has now been longer than that of Queen Victoria.

COURT

Former prison officer in court over misconduct charge

A FORMER prison officer charged with misconduct in a public office appeared in court on Monday.

Amanda Watts, 43, of Bury St Edmunds, had worked at HMP Highpoint in Stradishall.

Ms Watts was charged on August

25 by Metropolitan Police detectives from Operation Elveden, a police investigation into journalists' dealings with public officials.

The charge relates to events between September 16, 2010, and November 1, 2010.

The charge is that "being a public officer, namely a Prison Officer at HMP Highpoint, and acting as such, without reasonable excuse or justification, wilfully misconducted herself to such a degree as to amount to an abuse of the public's trust in that office."

The case was committed to the Central Criminal Court, where Ms Watts will appear on September 21 this year.

She did not enter a plea on Monday.

Diver sculpture complete

THE transformation of a dead tree into a 10ft sculpture of a diver was completed last week.

The tree, outside Haverhill's Abbeycroft Leisure Centre, was due to be felled after it succumbed to Dutch elm disease, but was saved by the decision to turn it into a work of art.

The figure was created by tree sculptor Ben Loughrill, originally from Steeple Bumpstead, who has previously worked on sculptures such as a 7ft wooden wolf on a Bury St Edmunds roundabout.

The diver, which cost £2,100 and was funded by St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Cllr Tony Brown's locality budget, was completed on Friday.

POLICE

Budget cuts to hit town police

CRIME figures are climbing and yet police will have to cut their budgets by 40 per cent over the next five years – but Haverhill will be getting new public Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) meetings to engage with residents.

The previous kind of SNT meetings, which were cancelled in March this year, helped to set priorities for the local police, with residents voting on what they would like to see focused on.

Haverhill Police's Insp Peter Ferrie said the police will now base their priorities on what poses the most "threat, harm and risk" to residents.

A new kind of "round table" meeting, which involved residents, councillors and police officers sitting to discuss local policing and safety issues, began on Monday.

Insp Ferrie spoke about the current state of Haverhill police and gave the latest crime figures.

The numbers in the Haverhill area have increased markedly, with 1,250 crimes reported this year, up from a three-year average of 930.

Insp Ferrie said: "Part of

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

this is due to a change in the way the government wants crimes recorded. We would go to a fight that had been broken up and we now have to record a punch in the eye as an assault despite the fact that we are going to get no help from the person.

"The assaults have gone absolutely through the roof in Haverhill and in Suffolk, and general crime has increased."

The numbers of "violence with injury" incidents in Haverhill has risen from an average of 99 to 161, and "violence without injury" has risen from 77 to 191.

Insp Ferrie pointed out that Stowmarket and Sudbury have also seen an increase of about 300 crimes compared to their three-year average this year.

The rising figures come against a backdrop of increasing budget cuts, which could affect staffing levels at Haverhill police station.

Insp Ferrie said: "It has been a difficult time for the police nationally over the last five years. We have steadily had our budgets eroded and that is set to get worse. We are expecting an announcement from the Home Office that the police will have to reduce their budgets by a further 40 per cent.

"I do not know the exact details of what that is going to mean.

"Haverhill is currently fully staffed. We have exactly the amount of staff that we should have. What will happen over the next few years I cannot be certain, but it is clear to me that staffing is where it will come from."

However, it was not all bad news at the meeting. Anti-social behaviour figures are down to 468 from a three-year average of 640 in Haverhill, and drug offences dropped to 28 from 48.

Details of the next meeting will be announced after Insp Ferrie meets with the SNT partners.

WASTE

Waste hub consultation continues

THE borough council's cabinet have approved a second stage of consultation on a controversial waste processing site.

The proposed West Suffolk Operational Hub is a joint project between St Edmundsbury, Forest Heath and Suffolk County councils. It would see a waste transfer station, vehicle depot and household waste recycling centre created at a site in Hollow Road Farm in Bury St Edmunds.

The first stage of consultation revealed concerns about traffic impact, noise, odour, landscape and visual impact.

For the second stage, residents will be presented with technical documents including a sustainability appraisal, the councils' case for locating services together, and the site selection criteria. Residents can review these documents and put forward suggestions for alternative sites.

The council also recommended a further £108,000 funding.

The consultation was approved by St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet at their meeting on Tuesday, and will go before full council on September 22.

First stage of development for 2,500 homes is approved

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

THE first stage of the biggest expansion of Haverhill since the 1970s has been approved by councillors.

The Great Wilsey Park development in North East Haverhill would see 2,500 new homes built in the town.

The masterplan for the development was approved by St Edmundsbury Borough Council's cabinet on Tuesday, and by the council's sustainable development working party last Thursday.

At the working party, it was debated for over an hour, with councillors raising concerns about whether the town had the infrastructure to deal with such a large expansion.

Cllr Jeremy Farthing said: "This is the biggest thing to happen to Haverhill since the 1970s and yet the infrastructure remains unchanged.

"There's still the same roads, same sewage, same drainage. All of these things have to be addressed before anything else happens. I regard it as preposterous to suggest that we can increase the size of the town with yet more housing without addressing these matters first. This is not sustainable."

DEVELOPMENT: The first stage of the Great Wilsey Park development has been approved.

Cllr John Burns told the meeting the development should be considered alongside the North West Haverhill development, as they would result in a total of over 3,500

Have your say at new homes in the town.

Particular concerns were raised over the provision of a north west Haverhill relief road to cope with the increase in traffic created by the new homes.

Cllr Peter Stevens said: "I cannot help but sympathise about the infrastructure. The north west relief

'This is the biggest thing to happen to Haverhill since the 1970s and yet the infrastructure remains unchanged. There's still the same roads, same sewage, same drainage. All of these things have to be addressed before anything else happens' – Cllr Jeremy Farthing road has been on the cards for some time, and it hasn't been delivered.

"We must give residents some reassurance that the infrastructure will be delivered."

Planning officer Chris Rand said there was a "cast iron guarantee" that the road would be delivered. He explained the developers had a bond riding on the completion of the road, and if the work was not completed within five years, then the council would be able to take the money and complete the work themselves.

He also said that Anglian Water had confirmed when the expansion was proposed that they would be able to cope with increased sewage.

Councillor for Kedington Karen Richardson said residents in the village were worried about the scale of the expansion.

However, Mr Rand stressed that the principle of expansion in north-eastern Haverhill had already been agreed in the Vision 2031 document, and it was too late to object to them.

He said: "What I keep having to stress is that matters of principle have already been established.

"We have the vision document. We are not here to consider the merits or otherwise of those adopted documents.

"We are here to consider how the development comes forward not if the development comes forward."

The masterplan will now go before St Edmundsbury's full council on September 22. If the masterplan is approved, more detailed plans for development can be drawn up.

‘Enthusiasm and commitment to make this work’

A MASTERPLAN which will shape the future of Haverhill's town centre has been given the go-ahead by councillors.

The town centre masterplan was approved by the St Edmundsbury Borough Council sustainable development working party last Thursday, and by the council's cabinet on Tuesday.

All that remains for it to be adopted as formal planning guidance is for it to be approved by full council on September 22.

The document, which proposes creating four mixed-use quarters with distinct identities, was created after a 12-week public consultation run by ONE Haverhill. The consultation received 353 responses, which amounted to over 26,000 words of text, and 1,040 people were directly engaged.

At the working party meeting, planning officer Chris Rand said: "In all the time I have been dealing with masterplans, never have I known one to create so much interest and so much enthusiasm from the people engaged in the process."

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

Changes have been made to the masterplan in light of the consultation. These include a greater emphasis on preserving heritage assets, and support for finding an occupier for the disused Corn Exchange building.

The masterplan also proposes six major development projects in the town, including creating a new town square in what is currently the Jubilee Walk car park.

The loss of car parking space in the town centre that this would involve was a cause for concern for some councillors.

Cllr Paula Fox, who is also a town councillor, said: "My only concern is the car parks. You are taking away the whole of the Jubilee Walk car park, and that's the town centre car park."

Mr Rand stated that the masterplan's strategy did not involve losing all the car parking in the town centre. He also supported the idea, suggested by Cllr John Burns, of having an ANPR traffic survey to help understand traffic in Haverhill and resolve issues with congestion and parking.

Adoption of the masterplan as planning guidance is only the first step in actually delivering the changes proposed in the document. Councillors were keen to stress the importance of implementing the suggestions.

Cllr Peter Stevens said: "We need in Haverhill to have the will to make it secure and overcome these problems. Yes, we can solve the car parks."

Cllr Alaric Pugh, chair of the working party and a member of the ONE Haverhill board said that at a meeting with the new Haverhill town councillors "I was bowled over by the commitment of the councillors now to work for and fight for Haverhill. I have very little doubt at all about the Haverhill commitment to make this work."

Charity DID start at home

WHEN I was seven years old, my family of four was forced to flee our home after a land mine fell in the next road.

Total strangers took us in – sharing their modest six-roomed house for the next two years.

At the age of seven, of course, I had no idea of the sacrifice made by our receiving family of four.

Today that sacrifice is deeply appreciated and my gratitude causes me to point out that, in this case, 'Charity DID Start at Home.'

I refer, of course, to the little piece coming last week from Moneypiece Close, in the hope that readers might respond to my interpretation of this saying rather than his.

Will gifts make a difference

AT Leonard Cheshire Disability we are marking 'Remember A Charity' week because gifts in wills are such a vital source of support for our charity. 35% of the population in the UK say they'd happily leave a gift to charity in their will and yet only 7% of people actually do.

So many people simply don't get round to it.

This week we want to raise awareness of how much of a difference gifts in wills make to disabled people and encourage people not to put it off. We support more than 7,000 people with often very complex disabilities every year and we rely on gifts in wills to continue helping them reach their full potential.

We hope your readers will consider leaving a gift in their will to Leonard Cheshire Disability.

They can find out more by going to leonardcheshire.org/giftsinwills or they can contact me on 020 3242 0410 or nancy.kirkham@leonardcheshire.org.

Thanks for swimming!

DIABETES UK wants to thank all the swimmers in the Eastern region who helped raise £22,737.62 by taking part in our Swim22 event.

The 22-mile length of the challenge is equivalent to swimming the English Channel, a distance which local swimmers tackled at their own speed over three months earlier this year. Sponsorship from swimmers' friends and families will help us to fund research, campaign on key issues, and offer education and support to more people who are living with diabetes.

There are now 3.9 million people with diabetes in the UK, a number that is growing rapidly – but the right support at the right time helps people to manage it and live long, healthy lives.

Swimming is a great way of keeping physically healthy which, along with eating a healthy diet, can help you maintain a healthy weight and therefore reduce your risk of Type 2 diabetes, and help all those with the condition to manage it.

If you want to make a splash to raise cash, individual and team registrations are now open for next year's Swim22, which starts in February 2016.

And as you can tackle the 22 miles all at once or over the three month period, it's open to all fitness levels. Visit www.diabetes.org.uk/swim22 to register.

'The Art of Peace' will be on show at Haverhill Arts Centre throughout September – the U.N. International Day of Peace takes place on September 21st.

The aim of our exhibition is to stimulate people to think about what peace means to them and how we can all play a part in achieving it. Years 5, 6 and 7 students from Castle Partnership schools provided the colourful art work; we were impressed by the discussions we had about how they would create peace. They thought about peace in their own lives, as well as peace in a global context. We are very grateful to them, and to their teacher, for all their inspiring and imaginative work.

Another part of the exhibition is 'Knit for Peace'; local people meet regularly to provide items to send to this UK initiative, which grew out of projects originally developed in Rwanda and India. Women of traditionally hostile communities were brought together to knit clothes for street children and orphans. Getting to know and speak with each other while being creative and practical is a great way of bringing about reconciliation, and this has now spread to other countries.

Last year, Mayor Roger Andre said: "We should be grateful to Havepeace for their work in our community to raise awareness amongst our young people of the fragility of peace in our world and their opportunity to contribute to enduring peace."

We are grateful to all those who contributed; to Mayor Betty McLatchy, who will be visiting; to the Arts Centre; and to Haverhill Library, which is displaying books on the subject of peace, in conjunction with the exhibition.

Public clock is installed

A NEW public clock designed by the students of a Haverhill school is being installed.

The clock, in Jubilee Walk, will be formally unveiled on October 2.

The clock has been designed by students at Samuel Ward Academy with help from their art teacher Neil Williams, and built by Metcraft Engineering in Haverhill. The design features three angels holding hands to represent town unity.

It is intended to commemorate the Olympic torch passing through Haverhill and the Queen's diamond jubilee in 2012.

The clock is being dedicated to the late Cllr Gordon Cox, who initially proposed the project but passed away before seeing it completed.

PLANNING

Objection to housing plan

COUNCILLORS are objecting to an application to build housing on land that has been designated for community use.

The application proposes building nine new homes on a plot of land adjacent to the care home in Brybank Road, Haverhill. It was considered by Haverhill town council's planning committee on Tuesday evening.

Chair of the committee Cllr Pat Hanlon said the Highways Agency had already raised an objection to the proposal on the grounds of lack of parking spaces, and questioned whether there was adequate bin storage.

But the most pressing concern for councillors was the fact that the land had previously been designated for community use.

Cllr John Burns said: "Twenty years ago it was promised to the community for various things, and nobody's made any effort to do anything about it."

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Cllr Maureen Byrne said: "My view very much is we should do everything we can to retain that as community use."

"When it was originally consulted, it was suggested at the time there would be a community centre or a doctor's surgery or a nursery."

"The doctor's became difficult because they were opening another one, but the community centre was something people were really looking forward to."

She pointed out that the Brybank Road area is removed from the town centre and a community centre of the Brybank Road land would give residents there a community hub.

Cllr Clive Turner, who lives near the site, welcomed the idea of putting the land to community use. He said:

"Ever since we have moved in, the land has definitely never been maintained. It's full of waste building materials, it's full of unseen hazards and nasty stuff. At best it's a litter trap. It's certainly not a community asset."

He agreed with other councillors that it could be of great value to the community if it was regenerated.

The councillors disagreed with the idea that the land had been designated for residential development in the Vision 2031 document which presents a vision of Haverhill's future.

Town clerk Colin Poole said: "Knowing the people round this table I find it pretty unlikely that Vision 2031 would in any way take a piece of community land and allow it to be built on without the people round this table knowing anything about it."

The town council formally objected to the application. It will now go before St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

CHARITY: John Senior of the Steeple Bumpstead Bowls Club with a cheque for £500

Bowled over by fundraising effort

A BOWLS club has raised over £1,000 for two local charities with a fundraising event.

The Buster Moore Charity Bowls Day was held on August 16 at the Haverhill Bowls Club, and was organised by the Steeple

Bumpstead Bowls Club.

The sun came out for the bowls players at the event, and refreshments were served all day.

The event raised £1,000 for local charities.

This was split equally between St Nicholas Hospice

Care's Burton Centre in Camps Road, Haverhill, and East Anglian Children's Hospices.

John Senior, Haverhill Bowls Club secretary, said: "The league was very keen for the money to be used locally."

REFUGEES

Town aid for refugee crisis

THE people of Haverhill are responding to the refugee crisis with donations of blankets, clothes and food.

The response has been organised by window cleaner Bryan Johnson, 40, who put out a call for donations on Facebook and is storing everything he collects in his spare room.

Mr Johnson, who lives in Gannet Close, said: "The response has been absolutely fantastic. It's really brought out the best in the town. There have been people that wanted to help but didn't have an avenue. It's a chance for people to help."

He had the idea for the collection on Sunday, and by Tuesday he already had thirty bags of donations, half-filling his spare room.

His friend Adam Mephram

HANNAH MIRSKY

is going to be driving the donations down to a collection centre in Kent. From there, the donations from people in Haverhill will be taken across the channel and distributed in Calais.

Mr Johnson said: "Obviously everyone was massively affected by coverage of children washed up on beaches. I have been following the situation for months and I thought as a nation if we are prepared to go in and take military action in these countries we should also be prepared to mop up the mess. I had the time to help in some way and that's what I'm doing."

He is also planning on organising a fundraising evening at Bar Vu in Haverhill towards the end of October.

He has organised lighting, DJs and venue hire for free, so all money raised from entrance fees at the event will go directly towards helping people.

The proceeds of the planned October event will go either to a French charity working on the ground in Calais, or towards buying more donations to send out.

Mr Johnson is still looking for help with security, and for more donations. What is needed in particular, he says, is camping equipment such as tarpaulins, sleeping bags, tents and candles.

You can contact him by search "Bryan Johnson" on Facebook, or by emailing mccoldt@hotmail.com.

EMPLOYMENT

Businesses ready for local jobs fair

OVER 20 local businesses will be at the Haverhill jobs and apprenticeships fair tomorrow.

There will be hundreds of opportunities available, and seminars on skills such as creating the perfect CV.

MP Matthew Hancock said: "I hope that those attending will make the most of this opportunity to speak to businesses, attend seminars with the experts and network."

The fair will take place at the Haverhill Arts Centre from 10am to 12.30pm.

POLICE

University survey asks your thoughts on crime

A SURVEY run by a university could be your chance to influence the future of policing in Suffolk.

University Campus Suffolk's community safety survey asks members of the public their opinions of crime and anti-social behaviour, what they have witnessed in their local area, and what their experiences with the police have been like.

The results of the survey will feed into a change programme in which Suffolk Police identify where they can make savings which are necessary due to government cuts.

The survey is part of a technique called Evidence Based Policing used to identify what the community needs from its police force.

The survey began on July 2 and will finish on October 16. At its halfway point it had 1,063 responses.

Suffolk's Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore said: "I'd like to thank all those who have taken time to respond to the survey so far, your views need to be at the very forefront of any decisions we make, so we are very grateful for your input."

"The public response to this survey will help us to see whether we are meeting the needs of our communities here in Suffolk as we redesign policing with reduced budgets. As we hit the half-way mark of the consultation I'd like to encourage everyone to take a few minutes to have their say."

To find out more, visit www.ucs.ac.uk/communitysafety/survey. The survey can be completed at www.surveymonkey.com/r/norfolksuffolksurvey.

COMMUNITY

Villagers asked: Would you like to buy the pub?

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

RESIDENTS are considering making a bid for a village pub after it was put up for sale.

The Cock is the only pub in the village of Little Thurlow, and it was put on the market at the start of September.

It was registered as a community asset in May this year, which means that the villagers now have a six-week window in which they can put together a bid to turn it into a community-owned pub. If it were privately bought, it would not necessarily remain as a pub.

A meeting on Monday to discuss making a bid was attended by 30-40 villagers.

Vice chairman of Little Thurlow parish council Chris Field said: "We lost our village shop 18 months ago. It isn't until you lose it that you realise what it meant."

"A good deal of the village use the pub. I think the village would grow apart without it because we wouldn't have a focal point."

"Where would we go together to have an informal chat? I worry as a village we wouldn't socialise. I'm quite concerned."

Although individual members of the parish council might get involved in making a bid for the pub, the council itself would not be.

Currently, 200 questionnaires about whether residents use the pub and if they would visit a community pub are being distributed in Little Thurlow.

The responses will help determine if there is enough interest to make a bid.

Further plans may be made at a meeting in the village on September 28. The deadline for the community to make a bid is October 8.

New Montessori nursery opens on research park

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A NEW Montessori nursery opened in Haverhill on Monday.

The nursery, on the Research Park site in Three Counties Way, is being run by a company called Colourbox which has operated a nursery in Newmarket for the past 25 years.

Colourbox were approached by research park developers Jaynic at the start of the process, and have had input throughout.

Susie Norman, director of Colourbox, said: "It's been a real labour of love. We have been able to design it right from the beginning. We've got underfloor heating, and every room opens on to the garden."

The 76-place nursery also has a chef to cook meals for the children. There is currently a staff of six, but this is expected to grow.

The nursery, which has received funding from Suffolk County Council, is open to children aged three months to five years who are on government funding or private funding.

It uses the Montessori technique, which is about allowing children to learn and discover at their own pace. It is being run in partnership with the Samuel Ward Academy Trust.

Gemma Green, whose daughter Blythe, 2, attends Colourbox, said: "She loves it, absolutely loves it. I'm struggling a little bit as a mummy, but they've made it really easy for me."

MILESTONE: The Montessori nursery has opened on the Haverhill Research Park.
Pictures: David Johnson

Nic Rumsey, of research park developer Jaynic, said: "This is another vital step towards providing Haverhill with a mixed use employment zone that is already providing homes, a restaurant and now nursery care."

"It is another major foundation stone towards making Haverhill Research Park a very sustainable working location."

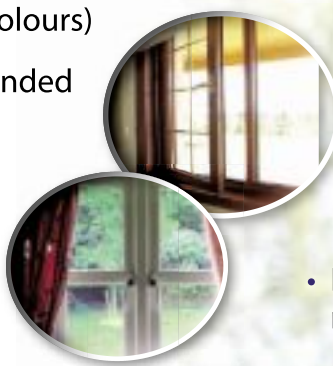

"Parents will be able to drop their children off before coming to work at the park and pick them up on the way home."

The nursery is now open for full and part-time care from 7am to 7pm every weekday, and will have open days on September 14, 16, 22 and 24.

To find out more, visit www.colourboxmontessori.co.uk.

Headteacher takes on charity run

THE principal at Castle Manor Academy in Haverhill has just completed a 10k run for charity.

Madeleine Vigar, executive principal at the school, took on the Derwentwater 10k in the Lake District on Saturday.

She was fundraising for Parkinson's UK, as her mother was diagnosed with the disease earlier this year.

Ms Vigar said: "It is a cause close to my heart and I really appreciate the sponsorship I have received. I have been training three times a week since Easter and have really seen an improvement in my running."

Although she has run 10k races before, the varied terrain of this race, with hills and bogs, was a new challenge.

CHALLENGE: Executive principal of Castle Manor Madeleine Vigar before her run

HISTORY*Do you have a spooky story?

HAVE you noticed any strange and spooky goings-on in Haverhill? One local historian wants to hear from you...

Chairman of the Haverhill Local History Group Roy Brazier is putting together a collection of people's strange and unexplained experiences in the town.

Mr Brazier says he had the idea after seeing people sharing spooky stories on a Facebook group.

"I didn't realise there was so much going on in Haverhill," he said.

"There's a house outside of Haverhill where there have been three sightings.

"It's not all ghosts, I've got people seeing poltergeists moving things about and various things like that."

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

Mr Brazier is keen to hear from people about any kind of strange experiences.

He said: "It's anything they have seen or they think is strange, not particularly in the house that they are living in now. Someone said: 'My mother saw some Roman soldiers!'"

Although he is only compiling the book now, as a part of the local history group Mr Brazier has encountered spooky happenings in Haverhill before.

He said: "A person came into the history centre and said: 'Something's been happening in this place, do you know what happened here in the past?' and I said: 'It's a place where a murder happened in 1906.'"

Despite all the things that he has heard, Mr Brazier is not certain he believes in ghosts.

He said: "I'm on the fence on that. I do believe in something, but not ghosts. I've written something right at the end that says 'It isn't to do with ghosts - well, it could be...'"

The collection is likely to be entitled Strange Haverhill, and Mr Brazier does not have a firm date for its publication yet.

If you've got a spooky story you'd like to share with Mr Brazier, you can send him an email at roy.brazier80@gmail.com.

Four vehicles involved in collision

POLICE were called to a four-vehicle collision in Haverhill yesterday morning.

A Volkswagen Golf was in collision with three other vehicles in Withersfield Road at around 8.30am.

The silver Golf, driven by a man in his 50s, was involved in a collision with a Renault Kangoo, a Ford Transit and a Volkswagen Passat.

The road was closed after the accident but was quickly reopened.

Police attended but the ambulance service were not called and there were no serious injuries.

From start to finish a job well done

Our wood burner was installed yesterday by Terry and Carole and we would like to say how pleased we were with their work. They were extremely courteous, pleasant and efficient and took the time to explain everything very well.

Just to say how pleased I am with the gas fire that I had fitted yesterday and particularly how hard Dave and George worked for the whole time they were here, doing a great job. Please pass on my thanks and mustn't forget Cam for his part - thanks guys.

The Red Lion

ADVERTISEMENT FEATURE

Set in the village of Great Wrating near Haverhill, The Red Lion has been a firm local favourite for many years. It's a busy, friendly family venue run by husband and wife George and Linda Sykes who are looking forward to celebrating their 17th Christmas as owners of the popular pub.

"The Red Lion is a lovely little village pub and we've been very happy here," says Linda. "Our children have grown up around here, and our grandchildren. We're now even on our great grandchildren!"

The Red Lion is very child friendly with a large garden and play area for the kids to amuse themselves while the adults enjoy a drink and some delicious pub food. "We serve everything from steak and kidney pie, to roast duck, fish or curry," says Linda. "Absolutely everything's on the menu and all our food is home cooked."

The Red Lion has a busy restaurant but also a separate bar where they offer a great range of beers and wines if you fancy just popping in for a drink. And if you like a bit of competition Linda says, "We have a brilliant darts team and we even play petanque in the garden."

If you're looking for a village pub with a great family atmosphere then look no further than The Red Lion. Visit The Red Lion, School Road, Great Wrating, Haverhill CB9 7HA or call (01440) 783237

In loving memory of Eric

A CONCERT is being held at Haverhill Arts Centre in memory of guitarist Eric Roche who died ten years ago.

■ Story on page 21

MEMORIAL

● A CONCERT is being held at Haverhill Arts Centre in memory of a guitarist who died ten years ago.

Eric Roche was a Haverhill-based guitarist originally from Tralee in Ireland. He was trained in classical guitar but developed his own unique percussive style encompassing folk, country, pop, and traditional Irish music. He died on September 6, 2005, after battling a rare throat cancer.

Arts centre programmer Nick Keeble said: "Eric was a special guy, a very talented musician and an inspirational performer. He played at the Arts Centre on a number of occasions and even helped to judge a Haverhill Rock Competition. His legacy to Haverhill Arts Centre has given us a chance to promote concerts by fantastic international musicians such as Tommy Emmanuel, Albert Lee, Pierre Bensusan, Thomas Leeb, Woody Mann, Andy McKee and those who will be on stage in November.

"We will celebrate his work as a composer, author and tutor as well as his inspirational qualities. It promises to be a great evening of music for a great musician."

The tribute concert, With These Hands: The Musical Legacy of Eric Roche, will take place on November 13 at 7.30pm.

Eric's wife Candy and their children will be attending the concert, and the line-up is made up of musicians who had a personal connection with Eric. These include Martin Taylor, a jazz fingerstyle guitarist who produced Eric's third CD, and Stuart Ryan, whom Eric asked to play at his funeral. Other performers include Clive Carroll, Ravi Ji, Declan Zapala, David Mead, and Nick Benjamin.

Tickets cost £20 and a donation will be made from the proceeds to Help Musicians UK, which supports musicians at critical times in their career.

To book call 01440 714140 or visit www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk.

MUSIC

IN LINE FOR AWARDS:

Artists in line for awards

THREE local musicians have been nominated for an award.

Singer-songwriter Dale Bennett, rock band Fenrir and duo Hardactor are all nominated for the New Music Generator (NMG) awards.

The awards are taking place at West Road Concert Hall in Cambridge on October 16, and will be judged by a panel of experts including BBC presenters Sue Marchant and Tom Simkins.

They have been organised by New Music Generator, an initiative to support local unsigned bands which runs events and a weekly radio show on Cambridge 105.

Dale Bennett, a 23-year-old working on his second album who lives in Haverhill, said: "I've been nominated for best male artist, which I'm pretty pleased about. It's cool just being put up for it."

"I'm looking forward to it, but I don't know what to expect. There's quite a lot of other artists who have been really busy, and I've spent quite a lot of time making the new album. It will be interesting to see what the judges go for."

Just as excited is bassist Lewis Rudkin of band Fenrir. The five-piece hard rock band, which has three members from the Haverhill area, have just released their new EP The Rise. They are nominated for the best rock group award.

Lewis said: "It's going to be a great night, and we're really excited to be there. It's just nice to know that they're supporting the local scene."

"The thing is about the music scene here, there's a lot going on but not enough people know about it. The people in the bands are working really hard, and that's why I love that NMG are helping out new acts."

Joe Bailey of indie pop duo Hardactors, who met at school in Stoke by Clare, is looking forward to the awards as a way of meeting people involved in the local music scene.

Joe, who lives in Sturmer, said: "They've got everyone together; you may have heard of them, you may not. It's got variety. It's a great opportunity with all the people from the BBC there. It's great for networking, so I'm looking forward to that."

The awards are even being supported by Sheila Ravenscroft, wife of the late John Peel. She said: "I continue to be impressed by the level of talent we have in this area which I see on a regular basis through my involvement with The John Peel Centre in Stowmarket."

"It's brilliant that an initiative like The NMG Awards are providing an opportunity for artists to be recognised for their achievements and potential."

■ Awash with the light of the city and the Sydney Opera House silhouetted against the setting sun The Handa Opera present Verdi masterpiece AIDA on Tuesday 15 September at 7pm. Recorded as live, the opera pits the intimate affairs of the heart against the grandeur of the universe, where kingdoms rise and fall and the sands of time grind onwards.

■ Don't miss a live broadcast of THE ROCKY HORROR SHOW LIVE on Thursday 17 September at 6.45pm from the West End. Get ready for a night of fun, frolics and frivolity with Frank N Furter, Riff Raff, Magenta and all the rest in this thrilling stage production of the cult favourite. The show is bursting at the seams with timeless classics, with Richard O'Brien as the Narrator and some surprise special guests. Bring it on, dress optional ...

■ Join us for PATSY CLINE AND FRIENDS on Friday 18 September at 7.30pm. Sue Lowry, with her powerful rendition of Sweet Dreams and Crazy, will take you back to those Honky Tonk days of pure Country Music. Songs include Back In Baby's Arms, She's Got You and Got A Lot Of Rhythm in My Soul. The evening includes guest tributes to Jim Reeves and Hank Williams.

■ On the cinema front LOVE AND MERCY (12A) is showing on Thursday 10 September at 7.30pm. In the 60s Beach Boys leader Brian Wilson struggles with emerging psychosis as he attempts to craft his avant-garde pop masterpiece. Sadly in the 1980s he is a broken, confused man under 24-hour watch of therapist Dr Eugene Landy. Finally Simon Pegg and Robin Williams star in ABSOLUTELY ANYTHING (12A) on Monday 14 September at 7.30pm. Ace joker Robin Williams's final film has him voicing Dennis, a dog belonging to weary teacher Neil on whom the power to do Absolutely Anything has been bestowed by aliens (voiced by Monty Python alumni).

■ Events to look out for include The Counterfeit Sixties on Saturday 19 September at 7.30pm, Monkey Nuts

Comedy Club on Sunday 20 September at 8pm and a recorded broadcast of NT Live Coriolanus starring Tom Hiddleston on Thursday 24 September at 7pm.

■ Please note SUBSTANCE on Saturday 12 September is no longer going ahead.

Iconic Fiat 500 gets successor

EXACTLY eight years and more than 1.5 million units since it was launched 50 years ago, the iconic Fiat 500 makes way for its successor: the New Fiat 500.

Retaining the unmistakable look that made it a global best-seller, the new Fiat 500 hasn't grown in size but has added advanced technologies, improved efficiency, more customisation ideas and a Centro Stile Fiat-refreshed exterior and interior.

Some 1,800 changes have been made to produce the New 500. The most changes can be found at the front: New Fiat 500 retains the "face" of its predecessors with headlights which are circular but adopt innovative polyelliptical modules for better night vision and extra safety.

New alloy wheel designs are also introduced on the New Fiat 500: Pop Star and Lounge models have 15-inch alloy wheels as standard (a £320 option) with 16-inch wheels available as a £370 option on Pop models and a £130 upgrade option on Pop Star and Lounge models.

The colour palette now totals 13 hues, including seven special pastel shades ('Bossa Nova White' is standard, the other pastel colours are a £350 option), one tri-coat finish ('Urban White' at £740) and five metallic colours (a £460 option) including two new colours: Glam Coral and Avantgarde Bordeaux. Two striking black-yellow and black-red variants are available as part of the Fiat 500 'Second Skin' programme.

The interior benefits from numerous enhancements, notably its dashboard design which now integrates the advanced Uconnect infotainment across the range.

The Lounge version is equipped with the Uconnect 5-inch Radio LIVE system which is a touchscreen unit complete with Bluetooth hands-free calling and music streaming; voice recognition and an SMS reader for reading text messages received on compatible telephones.

The New Fiat 500 is powered by a range of environment-friendly, Euro 6-compliant engines combined with five- and six-speed manual gearboxes or a Dualogic robotised transmission depending on the model. The engine line-up available at launch include the 1.2-litre 69bhp, the TwinAir 85bhp and the TwinAir 105bhp.

The TwinAir 0.9 85bhp has an official fuel consumption figure of 74.3mpg on the combined cycle with CO2 emissions of 90g/km. The 1.2-litre 69bhp has a combined fuel efficiency figure of 60.1mpg and CO2 emissions of 110g/km.

In terms of performance, 500/500C models equipped with the 69bhp, 102Nm 1.2-litre engine can accelerate to 62mph in 12.9 seconds and reach 99mph, while those powered by the TwinAir 0.9-litre 85bhp, 145Nm engine can reach 62mph in 11.0 seconds and 107mph.

The new Fiat 500 is now on sale at Glyn Hopkin with prices starting at £10,890.

Fall in number of car trips despite drop in fuel prices

THE average number of journeys made by people in England each year has reached its lowest recorded level.

Official figures show that the number of trips fell to 921 last year.

This is the lowest level since records began in the 1960s and a reduction of 16 per cent from 1995/97.

The National Travel Survey (NTS), released by the Department for Transport (DfT), found that since the mid-2000s the fall in trips by English residents within Britain had largely been due to fewer car journeys, despite the proportion of households with access to a car remaining roughly unchanged.

The average distance travelled by car had also fallen.

The National Travel Survey reported that declining mileage was a factor in the broad levelling off of traffic over the past decade, leading to a debate over whether car use had peaked.

But Paul Watters, head of roads policy at the AA, said people were being more careful in managing how much they travelled.

"The failure of much lower pump prices to trigger a revival in car use has been one of the most surprising trends recently," he explained. "From July to November 2014, the cost of petrol plummeted 10p a litre, saving more than a fiver a tank.

"Rather than encouraging more mileage, petrol consumption fell nearly 2 per cent (from October/December 2013 to the same period last year)."

Since the mid-1990s, trips for shopping, commuting and visiting friends have fallen consistently.

The NTS said one possible explanation for 43 fewer shopping trips being taken last year than in 2002 was the spread of online ordering and home deliveries.

Four in five households ordered goods either online, by telephone or post in 2014, with the most common items being clothes, books, CDs and travel tickets.

Meanwhile, the NTS said that commuting accounted for 19 fewer trips in 2014 than 12 years earlier.

It also noted that 5 per cent of employed people worked from home last year.

The report concluded: "Overall, the increase of the proportion of people who work from home could be linked to the decrease in commuting trips overall, although the scale of this effect would be likely to be small as home-working still accounts for a small proportion of the employed population."

Mini launches surfboard

MINI has launched its own surfboard with help from surf experts Channel Islands Surfboards. The design aims to offer surfers all of the same attributes of a Mini car, but on the waves.

Called The Mini, the new surfboard has been developed with Kalani Robb, a professional surfer and US Open Surfing Champion.

Just like Mini's car range, anyone buying The Mini surfboard can personalise it, thanks to a wide variety of colour choices and combinations.

Mini is working in partnership with the Croyde Bay Surf School to teach beginners about the sport and introduce them to its new surfboard, with prices starting from £580.

Robb said: "To create the feeling of agility and speed, we've developed the board with a little extra tail volume. The board's wider outline and low rocker really make it fly."

Croyde Surf Academy head coach, Carlo Fusie-Ferrero, said: "I absolutely love it, best board I've surfed in a very long time."

TO BE AUCTIONED: The Jaguar XJ12C used in 'The New Avengers'

Steed's Jag up for grabs

THE Jaguar XJ12C driven by John Steed in The New Avengers is being sold at auction and expected to fetch £10,000.

Played by Patrick Macnee, John Steed was regularly seen on screen driving the modified Jaguar, which has a full Broadspeed body kit and extra wide wheels for the television show.

Broadspeed ran racing versions of the XJ12C, powered by a 5.3-litre V12 engine, and the roadgoing version was adopted by the programme's makers as the ideal car for Steed's suave character. This car was only the eighth example built.

Finished in Racing Green, the Jaguar is complete but in need of a full restoration after being stored in a barn for many years. It's being sold at auction on October 14 by H&H.

Damian Jones, sales director of H&H, said: "Who remembers The New Avengers and did not at one time or another fancy ourselves at the wheel of this car?"

"Now there is a chance to make that fantasy a reality for a very nominal amount. And who knows, maybe the chance to find a modern-day Purdy in the passenger seat!?"

Kia works on wireless charging for Soul EV

WIRELESS charging systems, capable of transferring high power without need for precise alignment between the charger and the vehicle, are currently under development for electric vehicles, with the Kia Soul EV being the tester car for this research. Since its UK launch in January this year the Soul EV has received a positive response from media and customers for its performance and ability to cope well on both urban and country roads.

Wireless charging technology has the potential to significantly enhance the convenience of electric vehicles – and so increase the appeal and acceptance among consumers – while possibly enabling smaller battery pack sizes and reduced vehicle weight.

The system is being developed by Hyundai-Kia America Technical Center Inc (HATCI) and Mojo Motability Inc – a wireless power technology company, after being awarded a funding grant from the US Department of Energy (DOE).

Moody spot on in Rovers derby win

MICHAEL Shinn wants to see Haverhill Rovers kick on after their 1-0 victory over Saffron Walden in the Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division.

Tuesday night's derby at Catons Lane saw Perry Moody net the winner from the penalty spot in the third minute of added time.

Rovers player-manager Shinn felt it was a deserved win and is hoping to see his side progress up the table on the back of this result.

"I think, overall, we probably just shaded it," said Shinn.

"It's funny because I said to (Saffron Walden midfielder) Mark Abbot halfway through the second half that a set play is going to settle it.

"I'm delighted with the result because we've had a tough start, and it's a rubbish phrase but the season starts here."

It came after Rovers lost 1-0 at Halstead in the FA Vase, first qualifying round last Saturday.

After a good start, Rovers fell behind from a corner, and despite chances for Ty Alleyne and Baker it remained 1-0 at half time.

Rovers improved after the break but they failed to create any clear chances.

Halstead had a player sent off which led to a tense finish as Rovers piled forward in search of an equaliser.

Rovers return to league action this Saturday when they host Whitton United.

Meanwhile, Rovers' new A team kicked off the season with a narrow 1-0 loss away to Wickhambrook in Newmarket Motor Company League 5A.

The goal came from a disputed penalty, while Rovers' Lee Taylor saw an effort hit the crossbar.

Jordan Baker and Owen Longley had chances but Halstead survived to progress to the next round.

Haverhill Borough lost their FA Vase tie 1-0 at Welwyn Garden City after conceding in extra time.

Borough dominated the first half, but without creating any clear opportunities.

In the second half Craig Pruden volleyed over, and Ben Bradley and Ryan Swallow had efforts saved.

Welwyn had a player sent off in extra time after an altercation with Gareth Thomas, but in the final minute a powerful shot flew into the top corner past keeper Charlie Turner.

Borough are not back in First Division action until their trip to Ely on September 19.

Fightback is in vain as Haverhill lose out in Hambro final

A STIRRING fightback against Newton Green was not enough for Haverhill as they had to settle for the runners-up spot in this year's Hambro Cup.

The final at Bury saw Chris Vince's team up against the defending champions and they found themselves five down after the morning matches.

They saw Dave Spittle and Jack Bligh lose to Russell Oakey and Harvey Watts by one hole, Gerry Scott and Matt Farlie beat Connor Talbot and Bob Talbot by three holes, Andy Fish and Paul Bartlett lose to Simon Bearman and Mike Polley by five holes, and Vince and Jack Warwick lose to Jed Seeley and Greg Hills by two holes.

Haverhill fought back during the afternoon and after 15 holes the teams were neck and neck.

But despite the valiant efforts of the Haverhill team, it was not enough though and they lost overall by six holes.

The results of the afternoon saw Spittle and Bligh beat Oakey and Watts by four holes, Fish and Bartlett beat Talbot and Lewis Woodhead by two holes, Scott and Farlie lose to Bearman and Polley by eight holes, and Vince and Warwick beat Seeley and Hills by one hole.

Mandy Williamson returned an impressive haul of 41 points to win Haverhill ladies' Saturday stableford.

She was six clear of runner-up Lyn Fish, with lady captain Sheila Price third on 34.
